

FRENCH STILL DESCRIBE THE SITUATION AS SATISFACTORY

ALLIES MAKE NO ADVANCE SUFFICIENT TO STRIKE A DECISIVE BLOW

British Reinforcements Reach France—Colonial Troops Are on Way—Germans Continue Attack on Antwerp—Rush Troops and Supplies to Frontier in a Supreme Effort to Ward Off Russian Advance.

Another day has passed and the situation between the allied armies and the Germans in northern France is still described by the French official announcements as satisfactory, with here and there progress along the line, but not sufficient advance to the north and east to strike a decisive blow at the German right wing.

The battle on the Aisne gives every indication of being the greatest in history as to duration, losses and possibility in significance with respect to the outcome of the greatest war the world has ever seen.

British reinforcements, consisting in part of trained East Indian troops and in part of territorials, composed of a Scotch regiment which includes many sharpshooters who have won fame on the ranges in times past, have reached France to strengthen the British army, which for many weeks has been doing yeoman service beside its French allies. Colonial troops also are on the way to the battle front, not a few of whom have seen service in South African and other campaigns.

The Germans are continuing their campaign in Belgium by an attack on the outer defenses of Antwerp, and, according to Rome dispatches, are rushing thousands of troops and an immense supply of war material to the Russian frontier in a supreme effort to ward off the Russian advance.

In the eastern theater of war, Germany has taken into her hands the direction of the campaign against the Russian emperor's hosts. While Berlin officially is silent on the progress of the war, the Berliner Tageblatt, in a leading article, expresses the confidence of the German people that further news from the battle fronts will be in favor of the German arms.

French Give No Details.

London, Oct. 1.—The battle of the Aisne, now nearing the end of its third week, will soon outstrip in respect to time the great contest fought at Mukden nearly ten years ago, but still no decisive result has been achieved by either side.

The French official communication issued this afternoon, which was condensed into about thirty words, was one of the shortest given to the public since the war began. It records that progress has been made by both right and left wings of the allied armies, but gives absolutely no details or the extent of progress between the lines.

Military experts, however, believe that the great claws, as they have been described, continue to open and to clutch at the outspread wings of the German army, particularly the right, which composes the great portion of the U., and now has its back to the east, fighting with desperation to prevent the French left from encircling or smashing it along most of the front, estimated at 180 miles in length.

The artillery has played by far the most important part in the struggle, but on the German right the lighter guns, cavalry and infantry, are doing most of the fighting, with a stubbornness and disregard of life that people have so often said in recent years modern soldiers never would display. There have been unprecedented artillery duels between the rivers Oise and Aisne and between the Oise and the Somme, which have taken a heavy toll of the opposing armies, followed by cavalry and infantry charges in which first one and then the other side would gain or be compelled to give ground.

Operations Must Soon End. Still they have held out, the German wing being extended further northward as the French made another move to work around it. With an unlimited supply of troops this might go on for an indefinite period, but with the forces at the disposal of the two staffs the operation must soon come to an end.

The German official account says the Germans have defeated the French north and south of Albert. This doubtless refers to an engagement which correspondents have mentioned, admitting that the French had suffered a temporary reverse, but had later regained ground. Tonight's report that further progress had been made indicates that they have penetrated north of Albert.

On the allies' right, in southern Woivre, where progress also is reported, the French have been fighting to compel the Germans, who succeeded in crossing the Meuse at St.

Michel, to return to the eastern side of the river.

The statement in last night's communication that the French had occupied Hiesoprey and Rupt de Mad suggested that this already had been accomplished, but it has not been officially announced.

Along the extended front from the Oise to the Meuse, with the exception of the fighting mentioned on the wings, nothing has happened that the French staff considers worthy of mention. It cannot be that the troops in these positions are entirely idle. In fact, it is known that an artillery duel is going on continuously, but probably neither side has been able to move forward, while the infantry has been constantly on the alert to meet attacks and counterattacks.

For a time the Germans had the better of the artillery fighting, as they possessed the bigger guns. This situation is now said to have been overcome, for the French have brought up additional artillery, including some big naval guns which are credited with being able to outrange the German guns by 700 yards and which are being used to drive the Germans out of their strongly fortified positions.

Both Sides Full of Confidence. Both sides appear to be full of confidence. The Germans, who are bringing up reinforcements to meet the attempts to outflank them, are in what appears to be almost impregnable positions and are using them skilfully.

The allies, on the other hand, place their hopes in the arrival of reinforcements on their left and the possibility of finding a weak spot in the German front. The Indian troops should now be with the British army, the official bureau predicted today, publishing the fact that they landed in France on last Friday. It is believed the left wing will be stiffened by them.

A call has been issued for British railway men to go to France and assist in working the railroads there. Before long, therefore, there will be considerable, instead of a small British army in France.

With the German attack on the outer fortifications of Antwerp, Belgium has again become the scene of operations. The invaders so far have confined their attack to the forts protecting the river crossings between Malines and Antwerp. A German report says that two forts have been silenced, but the Belgians deny this. They declare the forts stopped firing as a ruse and that when the German field artillery approached to take them, they reopened fire, decimating the Germans, who had to retire, leaving behind several guns.

There is no indication of the strength of the German attempt, but it is presumed they have launched no mean force against the formidable defenses of the temporary capital.

Great Battle Impends Before Cracow.

According to a Rome dispatch, the Russian ambassador in that city had issued a statement to the effect that the Russians have destroyed the Austrian army in Galicia and that they are now turning their attention to the taking of Przemyśl and Cracow. A great battle is impending before Cracow and upon its result will depend the future movements of the Russian army. Victory to the Russian emperor's troops would permit a junction of the forces with the Russian central army and an advance into Silesia.

The Russians in the north, according to Petrograd accounts, have checked the Germans' advance and driven them back thirty miles to the region of Suwalki and Mirampol.

The Germans, however, continue to bombard the fort of Ossowetz. Their operations in this district have been greatly impeded by the marshy nature of the country, which prevents the movements of heavy guns and transports.

Austria has made immediate response to Italy's demand for an explanation of the sowing of mines in the Adriatic, promising to indemnify the fishermen who lost their lives and adopt measures to prevent a repetition of such occurrences.

A quietus also has been given reports that the relations between the allies and Turkey are critical, both the British foreign office and the Turkish embassy issuing denials and explaining that these reports do not represent the views of the government. The British naval mission which went to Turkey to reorganize the Turkish navy after the Balkan

WAR BULLETINS

LONDON, Oct. 2.—4:10 a. m.—It is officially announced at Vienna, according to Rome despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co., the Austro-German army concentrated at Cracow numbers 2,500,000.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Eighteen steamers of an aggregate tonnage of 29,951 have been sunk by German warships during September, according to a board of trade report, while nine steamers were destroyed by mines in North Sea in the same period, 750 lives being lost.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—3:15 a. m.—An official statement issued at Antwerp and sent by the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Co., says:

"There has been a fierce artillery duel all day (Thursday). Some of the German batteries which ventured too close to the forts were demolished. The enemy moved in the direction of Waerve St. Catharines out stopped by darkness."

PARIS, Oct. 2.—12:20 a. m.—The Rome correspondent of Havas Agency says a despatch from Petrograd to the Giornale D'Italia states that in the great battle which is imminent in the region of Cracow, Galicia, the Russian strength will be 1,000,000 men, with powerful artillery under the commands of Generals Rozsky, Brussloff and Dimitrieff.

TWENTY PERSONS ARE INJURED WHEN PLATFORM COLLAPSES

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 1.—Twenty persons, most of them women delegates to the fortieth annual session of the Missouri Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were injured here today when a temporary platform, erected on the lawn of the Shrine's temple, collapsed and precipitated its 400 occupants to the ground. About as many more were bruised, but no one was fatally injured, it was stated tonight. The platform had been erected for the purpose of grouping the delegates for a photograph. It sloped from the ground in front to a height of about ten feet in the rear.

A panic followed the collapse, numbers of the uninjured women fainting and becoming hysterical.

SAYS GERMAN INCURSION INTO RUSSIA HAS PROVED A FIASCO

Invaders Are Doing Their Best to Get Out of Russia Under a Steady Downpour of Rain.

London, Oct. 1.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Dispatch has sent the following dispatch:

"Experts here confess themselves unable to conceive what object Germany sought by the incursion into Russian territory up to the line of the Niemen river. Whatever the reason, the invasion has proved a fiasco."

"The invaders—something like a dozen army corps—are now doing their best to get out of Russia under a steady downpour of rain, which hourly is widening the already extensive areas of morass and washing into bottomless mud what passes for roads in this part of Russia. The German infantry is suffering terribly under weather and road conditions, while the artillery probably will remain in Russian territory and be fished out when winter frosts make the roads passable again."

"The German emperor's lightning stroke aimed at Russia has failed. Germany has left another 20,000 first line troops dead on the field, while the retreating troops are caught in a position which suits the wily Cossacks admirably."

PETITIONS FOR RECEIVER FOR ASHLAND TWELFTH STREET BANK

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Charging that more than $200,000 of its assets are so involved in the affairs of the La Salle Street Bank and Trust Co., as to be valueless, James J. Brady, state auditor today petitioned for a receiver for the Ashland Twelfth Street State Bank. The bank was one of those closed by the state bank examiner at the time the La Salle Street Bank closed its doors.

The petition asked that the directors be adjudged liable and that C. B. Munday, president of the State Bank and vice president of the La Salle Street bank and Abraham Lovin, cashier, be enjoined from disposing of any of the property.

varre, has returned to England, however, arriving today.

A fresh outcry has arisen against the severe censorship. It is pointed out that the Germans have allowed German, American and Dutch correspondents to visit the front, while not a single British correspondent is with Field Marshal French's army. The Evening Star says: "This method of making war in the dark is depressing to the British public and is not likely to stimulate recruiting."

MANN SPEAKS AGAINST THE PHILIPPINE BILL

SAYS IF ISLANDS BECOME INDEPENDENT SOME NATION WILL TAKE THEM

Republican Leader Declares Conflict Between the United States and the Orient, "Commercial or Otherwise," Is Inevitable.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Warning that Philippine independence meant surrender of American strategic command of the Pacific, "the fighting ground of the future," and that a conflict between the United States and the Orient, "commercial or otherwise," was inevitable, was given the house today by Republican leader Mann in a vigorous speech opposing the pending administration Philippine bill. Representative Mann declared that if the Philippines became independent they would in time either be acquired by Japan or some other nation ultimately to be used against the United States.

"If there is to be independence for the Philippines," said Mr. Mann, "let it be absolute independence. If they are to go, let them go, and let Japan and China, Germany or England take them, as is inevitable, and then we will know what we have to fight."

"Close to Japan, like a sleeping child of the world, is China, with her vast territory, with her immense population. What was going on in Japan a few years ago is going on now in China. The awakening of China is more marvelous than in Japan, and as these great people in China rise to the civilization of our modern days and engage in manufactures and in production of all which man produces, we will enter into a series of competitive efforts with the far east which have never been equalled in this world of ours."

"The great population of China we say shall not be permitted to come to our shores. At the same time we say that China shall not be permitted to shut out our people or our goods. Such a position as we take perhaps cannot be abandoned"—our people, but it never can be enforced in the long run without the power to enforce it. When China is awakened, going out into the world, we will have a conflict on our hands which will last for many years, possibly for many centuries."

"We who are now legislating, if we do not bear in mind the possibilities of hundreds of years from now and the inevitable conflict, commercial or otherwise, which we will meet in the far east, have forgotten the principles which ought to actuate us."

"It is as certain as that the sun will arise tomorrow that a conflict will come between the far east and the far west across the Pacific ocean. All which has taken place in the world during the history of the American race up to now teaches us that the avoidance of the conflict is impossible. I hope war may not come, that there be no conflict of arms. I have little faith that in this world of ours people and races are able to meet in competition for a long period of time without an armed conflict. A fight for commercial supremacy in the end leads to a fight with arms, because that is the final arbiter between nations."

"Who today would propose that we let Japan have a naval station in Mexico? Who today in our country would assent to England's proposal to transfer British Columbia to Japan? We would go to war in a minute to prevent it, because we would be opposed to letting Japan or China have a base of supplies on this side of the Pacific."

When Representative Mann took the floor, Manuel Quezon, resident commissioner from the Philippines, had just concluded a plea for independence and for prompt action on the Jones bill, which would declare the purpose of the United States to grant independence as soon as the Filipinos were capable of self-government.

PERSON TESTIFIES THAT HE SHOT MUSSER IN SELF DEFENSE

LINCOLN, Ill., Oct. 1.—Carl Peterson, Clinton, Ill., labor editor on trial charged with the murder of Antoine Musser, testified today he had shot at Musser while in a daze and only after being attacked.

"I was twice attacked in Decatur that summer," he said. "I had been warned that non-union men had threatened to kill me. I was called to the interurban station on the afternoon of the shooting and was brutally attacked by a man twice my size."

"When I got to my feet he lunged at me, and I only remember pulling the trigger once."

Many well known citizens testified as to Peterson's good reputation. The case will probably go to the jury Saturday afternoon.

CARRANZA WILL ABIDE BY DECISION

Presides at General Conference of Generals and Governors at Mexico City

GENERAL READS MESSAGE

Supreme Chief Reviews His Acts Since Assuming Power—Conference Considers Adjourning

VILLA'S ARMY IS DIVIDED

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 1.—The general conference called for by the plan of Guadalupe met in the chamber of deputies this afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Gen. Venustiano Carranza presiding. Twenty-six generals and twenty-four state governors or their representatives attended.

After the report of the credentials committee had been heard, Gen. Carranza read a message reviewing his acts since he assumed power as supreme chief of the constitutionalists and reiterated his willingness to abide absolutely by the decision of the present conference regarding the provisional presidency, the calling of general elections and the scope of the reform laws.

A discussion ensued regarding the advisability of adjourning the present convention and meeting again at Aguas Calientes on October 5, when all factions, including Gen. Emiliano Zapata, would be represented.

No decision has been reached in this matter as the time of the closing of this dispatch, but the general sentiment among the delegates seemed to favor adjournment until some time between October 5 and October 10, when the present body would meet with the northern generals at Aguas Calientes. It was proposed that Zapata be present at this convention as a spectator only, without the right of a voice or vote. Zapata delegates, however, would be on the floor.

Say Villa's Army Is Divided.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 1.—Definite reports of divisions in Villa's army reached the border today from both official and impartial sources. The report that Gen. Monclovia Herrera, with his entire brigade, had revolted against Villa's authority was confirmed. It was also reported that the Arrieta brothers, leaders in Durango, had revolted to the Carranza side, and that Villa's leader, Tomas Urbina, had taken Durango City after a battle.

Observers here took these reports as indicating that they would strengthen the position of Carranza in his pending negotiations with Villa at Zacatecas.

Declare Outlook Is "Very Hopeful."

Washington, Oct. 1.—Unofficial reports reaching the administration from constitutional sources here conveyed further assurance that permanent peace will soon be restored in Mexico through the designation of Fernando Iglesias Calderon as provisional president, pending an election.

No official word from Mexico City concerning the convention which was called to meet today to promulgate plans for a general election, or from the peace conference between Carranza and Villa representatives at Zacatecas and Aguas Calientes was received by the state department today.

Both President Wilson and Secretary Bryan said, however, the outlook for a peaceful settlement of the differences between the factions in Mexico was "very hopeful." Other officials said they confidently expected the peace conference to be successful.

Strong representations have been sent to both Carranza and Villa against injuring foreign priests and nuns, and it was said by officials today that both leaders have assured the administration that foreigners will be given their "protection." The constitutionalists have made it plain, however, that in cases where the clergy have aided the Huerta regime they will be compelled to leave the country.

FIVE ARE ARRESTED AS THE RESULT OF DEATH OF PUGILIST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Five arrests were made here today as the result of the death of Emmer Sexton, a pugilist fighting under the ring name of Bill Huddle, who succumbed early this morning from the effects of a beating administered last night in a six-round bout with Arthur (Knockout) Carroll.

Those arrested were Gregory Mitchell, matchmaker for James W. Coffroth, promoter of the fight; Bert McCullough, the referee; Carroll, the surviving principal, and two seconds. The defendants were admitted to $2,500 cash bail in the case of Carroll and $500 for each of the others.

Sexton collapsed after weathering the entire six rounds against an opponent who outlasted him. The dead boxer was a son of O. C. Sexton, a railroad contractor of Omaha, Neb., and his mother is Mrs. Charles Givens of Dunbar, Ia.

TELLS GRAPHIC STORY OF RUIN IN BELGIUM

DESTROY VILLAGES TO SUPPLEMENT DEFENSES OF ANTWERP

Declares Nearly Every House in Termonde is Blown Up—Says Whole Life of the Nation Has Been Arrested.

LONDON, October 1st.—A graphic picture of the desolation of Belgium was brought to London today by J. H. Whitehouse, member of parliament from Lanarkshire, who has just returned from a tour around Antwerp to assist in relief measures.

"Having always regarded war as the negation of all that is good," said Mr. Whitehouse tonight, "I desired to see what its ravages were in a country exposed to all its fury and what steps were possible to mitigate them. I do not think that any one here has realized the plight of the civilian populace of Belgium today and I can attempt to give a picture of it only by describing some of my own experiences."

Mr. Whitehouse made the journey outside Antwerp with two military cars, attended by Belgian officials. In describing the damage which he says the Belgians had to inflict upon themselves to supplement the defenses of Antwerp, he said:

"Hundreds of thousands of trees had been cut down so that as some points of our journey we had the impression of passing through a wilderness of roots. The tree trunks had been removed so as to afford no cover to the enemy. All houses had been blown up or otherwise destroyed. Later we passed through the country which had been flooded as a further measure of defence. The damage resulting from these precautionary measures alone amounted to ten million pounds sterling ($50,000,000)."

"In the villages all ordinary life was arrested. Women and children were standing or sitting, dumb and patient by the roadside. Half way to Termonde we could plainly hear the booming of guns and saw many evidences of the battle which was then raging."

"I had read newspaper accounts of the destruction of Termonde and had seen photographs, but they had not conveyed to my mind any realization of the horror of what actually happened. Termonde a few weeks ago was a beautiful city of about 16,000 inhabitants, a city in which the dignity of its buildings harmonized with the natural beauty of its situation, a city which contained some buildings of surpassing interest."

"I went through street after street, square after square, and I found every house entirely destroyed with all its contents. It was not the result of bombardment; it was systematic destruction. In each house a separate bomb had been placed, which had blown up the interior and set fire to the contents. All that remained in every case were portions of the outer walls, which were still constantly falling, and inside, the skeletons of the contents of the buildings. Not a shred of furniture or anything else remained."

"Of the population I thought that not a soul remained. I was wrong, for as we turned into a square where the wreck of what had been one of the most beautiful of Gothic structures, a blind woman and her daughter groped among the ruins. They were the sole living creatures in the whole town."

"Shops, factories, churches and houses of the wealthy, all were similarly destroyed. One qualification only have I to make of this statement. Two or perhaps three houses bore the German command in chalk that they were not to be burned. Where a destroyed house had obviously contained articles of value, looting had taken place."

"I inquired what had become of the population. It was a question to which no direct reply could be given. They had fled in all directions. Some had reached Antwerp, but a great number were wandering about the country, panic stricken and starving. Many already were dead."

"What had happened at Termonde was similar to what had happened in other parts of Belgium under the military occupation of Germany. The result is that conditions have been set up for the civilian population, throughout the occupied territory, of unexpected misery. Comparatively few refugees have reached this country. Others remain wandering about Belgium, flocking into other towns and villages or flying to points a little way across the Dutch frontier."

"The whole life of the nation has been arrested. Food supplies, which would ordinarily reach the civilian population, are being taken by the German troops for their support. The peasants and poor are without the necessities of life and conditions of starvation grow more acute every day. Even where there is a supply of wheat available, the peasants are not allowed to use their windmills, owing to the German fear that they will send signals to the Belgian army."

BELGIAN KING SURVEYS OPERATIONS FROM BALLOON

London, Oct. 2, 3:45 a. m.—An Antwerp despatch to the Daily Mail says: "King Albert is to be seen constantly in the danger zone. He is reported to have ascended yesterday in a balloon to survey the operations. The enemy shelled the balloon, but the shells fell short."

FIFTY ENTOMBED MINERS ESCAPE

Cave-In Imprisons Men in American Davey Zinc Mines at Webb City, Mo.

TIMBERING GIVES WAY

Prompt Action of Rescuers Is Successful Beyond Expectation—All Are Accounted For

EXPLOSION IN DUQUOIN MINE

WEBB CITY, Mo., Oct. 1.—After more than two score men, many of them battered and bruised, had tumbled 250 feet up ladders to the surface, it was announced late tonight that the last of the men imprisoned in the cave-in of the American Davey Zinc mines had been rescued and that no lives were lost.

Early reports said a number of miners, estimated at from 12 to 20, were imprisoned in the mine and it was believed all had perished. However, the prompt action of the rescuers in assisting the men to the surface in small groups was successful beyond expectation and finally all were accounted for.

Fifty men working in the mines were temporarily entombed when the timbering supporting the roofs of three of the seven connected mines, gave way. Most of them escaped by finding their way to shafts and climbing up ladders 250 feet.

The drifts of the three mines of which the roofs collapsed, were not being worked, but when the tons of earth and rock fell, a rush of air, like that of a huge air-gun resulted in the drifts of the other mines. Men were catapulted and buffeted against rocks and the jagged ends of mine timbers. Most of those injured it is believed were hurt in this way.

The electric lighting and hoisting system throughout the mines was paralyzed. Through mine number 7, fifteen miners climbed to the surface after finding their way through darkened drifts by liberating a blind track mule and following him as he made his way, over a path he had trod unassisted for years, to the shaft. All of these men were injured, none of them however, dangerously.

A call for help was sent out over the mining district and nurses, physicians and ambulances were sent from Carthage and Joplin.

The mines, owned by the American Zinc, Lead and Smelting Co., were being worked nights because of the closing of the German zinc mines.

Explosion Shakes Majestic Colliery.

Duquoin, Ill., Oct. 1.—A violent explosion of unknown cause shook the Majestic Colliery here tonight and is believed to have cost the lives of several workmen. A rescue party was sent below to investigate the extent of damage.

Only a few men were employed about the mine at the time of the explosion. The exact number is not known. Mine officials declare the explosion was caused by gas or powder.

MILLS WITHDRAWS; TANNER IS CHOSEN CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—At the personal request of District Attorney Charles S. Whitman today, Ogden L. Mills, avowed "anti-organization" candidate for chairman of the Republican state committee, withdrew from the race and Fred C. Tanner, campaign manager for Mr. Whitman in his gubernatorial primary campaign, was unanimously elected to succeed William Barnes, whose term and is believed to expire automatically at noon today. He was not a candidate for re-election and did not attend the meeting. In a brief address to the committee, Mr. Mills declared he was withdrawing solely because Mr. Whitman had requested him to quit the race "in the interest of harmony." He added that he would support whoever was chosen as chairman.

♦ THE AUTOMOBILE ROAD HOG ♦
Jacksonville has some first class automobile road hogs. A road hog is just as liable to be an auto driver as a driver of a horse drawn vehicle. A few years back the auto driver was complaining about the driver of horse drawn vehicles not giving the auto driver his half of the road. The writer finds that those conditions have changed. Now the auto driver wants all the road.

For an auto driver to thoroughly dust another driver on the road is in my estimation a first class road hog. I have seen instances on a dusty road where persons traveling in a buggy would be completely enveloped in a cloud of dust caused by some road hog. Some auto drivers take this as a good joke and some auto drivers seem to take particular delight in running over chickens.

Would it not be better for all concerned to use a little more road courtesy in passing our friends on dusty roads, and should a driver pull over to allow you to pass him, thank him, thereby leaving a pleasant taste in his mouth rather than fill it with dust, and don't forget that even the fastest driver occasionally get all that's coming to him.

Yours for more and better road courtesy,
W. J. Brady.

THAT MISSIONARY DEFICIT.

There has been a good deal said in the papers in this part of the state about the $12,000 decrease in missionary offerings as reported at the last session of the Illinois Conference at Shelbyville. The blame for this has been vigorously laid at the door of the educational forward movement and the campaign for conference claimants fund. As a matter of fact, all this is beside the mark. There is no normal decrease, but an increase.

The facts are these: During the year 1912-13 the Missionary society received a legacy of $12,000 through the church at Greenfield. This was given and reported through the regular church collections. It was not a "special gift," as the Missionary society uses that term. However, it ought not to be considered when estimating increases or decreases. Of course, it was not duplicated this last year. This accounts for the seeming decrease and relieves the colleges and superannuates of responsibility.

Leaving this legacy out of the account, there was a decrease of $796 this last year in the church collections. But this is only one element in the offering. There was an increase of $495 in the Sunday school offerings and an increase of $2,643 in special gifts. This makes a total net increase in normal giving of $2,842 over the previous year.

Taking into account the drought, general conditions and other interests in the field, this is a fine increase.
F. A. McCarty.

Progressive Candidate. Robins came to Jacksonville in his private car Thursday afternoon and the order that he was not to be disturbed until six o'clock was observed. Not every candidate who champions the cause of the "plain people" can travel with such comfort but the fact that Mr. Robins dug enough gold in the mines of Alaska about 1897 to last him the remainder of his years, relieves him from the charge of plutocracy which might otherwise be hurled at him during a strenuous campaign.

MR. TANNER'S PREFERENCE

Since going to New York Frederick C. Tanner formerly of this city has rose to social, professional and political prominence in the Empire state. Press dispatches state that he was yesterday chosen chairman of the Republican central committee of the state, one of the most powerful political positions in the United States and one which will give him national prominence. Mr. Tanner is a man of such ability, of such untarnished character, that his selection should do much toward uniting the differing factions of the republican party in New York. At the Chicago convention in 1912 he was one of the two uninstructed delegates from New York as he declined to go to the Chicago convention unless permitted to vote as he pleased. His vote was cast for Justice Hughes.

SHERMAN AND PATHOS.

The Journal believes that the course of Senator Sherman in the U. S. senate and his record prior to that time as a private citizen and a public official entitles him to a return to the senate in the coming election. "A pathetic fact" in Illinois politics is the manner in which Mr. Sherman is described by Raymond Robins. Just why the word "pathetic" was chosen is not explained but to the average man who knows something about the vigorous forcefulness of Sherman's character, his fearlessness in politics, the words constitute a misnomer. Sherman is a fact all right, a living, forceful sort of fact, but he is not a figure to excite pity.

Favoring Senator Sherman's reelection as it does, the Journal under the old order of things could not consistently support for the legislature Capt. John E. Wright who is a candidate on the Progressive ticket. In former years the legislature elected the senators but this year the new condition is in effect and the senator will be chosen by direct vote of the people. This fact makes it possible to support Capt. Wright at this time and the Journal hopes that he will be elected to the legislature in November. Capt. Wright is a Morgan county man of unquestioned strength of character. He can be depended on to follow the course he thinks is right and can be depended on to serve his home county in so far as possible. Morgan county voters need ask for no better servant than one both honest and loyal.

RIGHTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

Raymond Robins, Progressive candidate for the U. S. senate from Illinois, addressed a large audience at the court house Thursday night. For Mr. Robins' words come "trippingly upon the tongue" and they are not light and vain, but forceful and eloquent. He is a polished orator and along with the oratory there is the ring of sincerity, the convincing sort of something that makes one know that the speaker thoroughly believes what he is talking about.

Raymond Robins has for years been a settlement worker in Chicago. For many a down and out man he has placed "a hand upon the shoulder in a friendly sort of way" and so has helped to lift him. He is a humanitarian and for years has been an active and potent force in securing protection and rights for industrial workers, especially women and children. All honor to Mr. Robins as a man and for the splendid spirit and character that are his.

As a candidate Mr. Robins points to the errors made by the two old parties and tells of the need there is to secure greater rights for the people and to place in their hands more certainly control of governmental affairs. He tells us that this is all very simple and that the Progressive party will bring human rights to the people easily and speedily by the initiative, referendum and recall.

Mr. Robins tells a great and patent truth when he states that good government rests with the people. In this country the people now get just the kind of government that they demand. If enough people in a city want a certain thing they get it. If enough people in a county or state want some certain thing they get it and the same is true of the nation. Mr. Robins however does not make it clear just why it has been deemed necessary to form a new party in order that the people may be led forth from darkness into light or just how through the instrumentality of this party the people are to be freed from the oppression and burdens with which they are supposedly weighed down.

The Republican party has fought for human rights from its beginning. Through the years some abuses may have grown up, some errors may have crept in. But today in the leadership and in the rank and file of the party there is exhibited a manifest desire to give aid to every movement which is for the general good of the country.

When someone avows that "the people must rule" and that the bosses must be forever relegated to oblivion, in the enthusiasm of the moment, the average citizen finds something in him that responds immediately. On sober second thought however there comes the realization that no party can exist without organization and that a certain number of leaders or "bosses," if you please, are necessary to the maintenance of the party. It occurs to him too that the Progressive party, if successful, must succeed because of its organization and leadership.

The theory of Mr. Robins is that the Progressive party will draw all the good people of both the old parties into its ranks and that all the bad people will then form a party of their own. There are so many more good people in the two parties than bad that when that day comes it will be easy to have nothing but the kind of government that is needed and desired. Now then agreeing with the belief that there are more good Republicans than bad and more good Democrats than bad wouldn't it be more logical to assume that the way to right all real wrongs would be for the best element in each party to gain control of that party and so to have two good organizations striving to accomplish the best. Wouldn't two good parties be better than one party avowedly good and one avowedly evil.

Then, too, its worth remembering that this clear division of the sheep and the goats is not likely to occur until the dawning of that millennial day when those "arrayed in white robes" are gathered at one side and those who have sinned upon the other.

One may rail against politics and bosses and parties but these will remain so long as we have party organization.

AN OLD DEED.

In looking over some old papers recently Miss Mary Caldwell of South East street found the original deed to some land she owns near Franklin. It has been in the family since 1829.

Merle C. Card of Missouri Valley, Ia., and Miss Hattie Wilson of this city were not married at the home of J. Thompson Sharpe, as stated in the Journal of Thursday.

SOME WAR EFFECTS FROM FOREIGN VIEWPOINTS.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Sept. 15.—American tourists for the last month have continued to arrive in large numbers from the Continent by every boat and train. Some have come here completely stranded. Others, have been able to travel first-class and get through from various parts of the Continent without other inconvenience than delay due to the movement of troop trains.

Most of the regular routes—Dieppe, Flushing, Calais, Ostend, Havre and Boulogne are open but owing to mines strewn by German vessels, channel boats have only been allowed to cross by day.

The Flushing boat trains have brought hundreds of German Americans, some of whom can hardly speak a word of English. Passports have been closely examined at the ports of entry and all incoming travelers have had to submit to a strict medical examination.

London, in fact, has become the one great City of Refuge for Europe and Americans and refugees of all types, whose origins are to be found in all the nations of the continent, are flying from the devastations and trials of the war.

How varied are the types of these American citizens can only be realized by those constantly meeting boat-trains. The Relief Committee Workers have had to help German, Austrian, Belgian, French, Polish, Roumanian and Russian Americans and North American Indians, a picturesque party in full war costume, whose trials and privations after touring in Austria with a German Circus, have been related in previous despatches.

Only two days ago a Galician, who has been an American citizen for over 20 years, arrived with his wife and her child. He had gone to Galicia to marry her and the women and child arrived clad in their artistic national costume, top boots and all. The measures taken by the Relief Committee to deal with those without money have been admirable. All those stranded have been put in taxi-cabs and sent to hotels for the night. The next day they have been taken over by the Relief Committee Workers at the Savoy Hotel and sent off, almost within the day, to America. The Committee has taken in hand many cases of lost trunks for poor travelers who were obliged to go to America by the first boat and trust to luck to their trunks being found and forwarded. In one instance the committee, after searching for three days, for a woman's "package" found that it was a bedstead she had left in Antwerp.

Some pathetic hard luck cases have come to light. One poor woman who reached London with her little boy and wished to get to Liverpool where her husband had booked her passage, broke down completely with gratitude when a member of the Committee took her in charge, found her luggage and sent her off to Euston in a taxi-cab. A parrot of variety artist who had had a hard time in Brussels were delighted at finding willing and prompt aid for them here. A rich woman, who had lost her maid abroad had had no change of clothing for three weeks and could get no money from the Banks, found her friends immediately she arrived in London and was rescued from a most embarrassing and awkward position. Two well known women, each with two children, had not even one penny between them on getting to Charing Cross.

(Correspondence to the Associated Press.)

Panama, Sept. 18.—Like nearly all the Central and West Coast South American countries, Panama is suffering from the effects of the European conflict. The situation here is aggravated, it is declared, by a lack of financial surplus and it has been found necessary to propose the discharge of many government employees and the stoppage of practically all of the public work.

There is no immediate possibility of securing additional revenue from import duties. Under treaty agreements with the United States the republic cannot increase duties beyond the 15 per cent which is already imposed. Ever since the outbreak of the European War imports have steadily declined, those from Europe having almost disappeared, while imports from the United States and other neutral countries have not increased sufficiently to make up the deficit.

Recently Ernesto T. Lefevre, Secretary for Foreign Affairs and one of the President's trusted advisors, stated that a general reduction of government salaries was in contemplation. This, however, he said, cannot be done without the sanction of the national assembly. A measure is said to be in preparation for this purpose.

Considerable dissatisfaction is manifest in commercial circles over the determination of the administration to carry to completion the proposed national exposition. It is pointed out that the immediate abandonment of this project would materially aid in strengthening out the country's finances and probably would make necessary the borrowing of a considerable sum at high interest.

Just what measures the administration has in mind for relieving the situation, have yet to be announced, if any have been determined upon.

Hadwig Engelender, the composer who died recently, left several musical pieces, which may be produced shortly. One of them is called "The Education of Love."

Mrs. George Hocking left yesterday for St. Louis to visit with her sister, Mrs. Curtis and with other relatives.

WAR BRINGS TRACTION EXPERT FROM BARBADOS TO JACKSONVILLE

McKinley Interests Had Begun Electrification of Street Car System in British West Indian City—Stopped by European Conflict.

W. R. Morrison of Joliet, Ill., is in Jacksonville doing special work for the Railway & Light Co., instead of Barbados, British West Indies, all because the great war in Europe upset his plans and put a stop to the electrification of the tram-line in Bridgetown, which was recently bought by the McKinley interests, and which bids fair at some time to become one of the best paying of I. T. S. properties. Mr. Morrison was in New York City ready to sail late in July when the news of the war put a stop to all building activities on the British island. Mr. Morrison was in Barbados a year or so ago and relates a number of interesting circumstances with regard to the railway and the people of the island as well.

The history of the McKinley venture in Barbados is an odd one. When William B. McKinley was touring the world in 1910 he visited Bridgetown, the largest city of the island, and was much surprised to find a good sized city with nothing better than the old time mule car for transportation. He saw the possibilities in the situation and took over the property in January, 1911, expecting to electrify the line immediately. Franchise troubles arose and delayed matters, but by February of the present year preparations for the work were practically complete. Although the motors and the ties were to be American made, most of the other material was ordered from Germany and the stopping of manufacture there as well as the withdrawal of British capital, which was concerned in the project, made it impossible to continue, with the result that the McKinley system includes at least one genuine mule line.

Mr. Morrison is assisting local company men in preparing the inventory recently ordered by the Public Utility commission and will be in the city for two or three weeks.

Still a chance to get high class men's clothing and furnishings at 60 cents on the dollar at the sale of the Breckon & Jenkinson stock.

STATE COMMISSION ENGINEER CHECKS UP UTILITY INVENTORY

Compilation Necessary for Electric and Gas Hearing Well Under Way
—Work of Inspection is Very Arduous Task.

The engineer for the State Utility Commission is now in Jacksonville for the purpose of inspecting and checking up the inventory sheets made by the Traction company engineers who are engaged in that work. There are nine men now busy in compiling the figures which the Utility Commission instructed the company to file which will be in connection with the hearing before the board on the petition of Jacksonville citizens asking for lower electric and gas rates.

Although this seemingly large force of men has been at work for several weeks, the task is not nearly completed and it is possible that the inventory may not be ready by Oct. 14, the date which the commission fixed that it should be filed.
The inventory must necessarily be of a very comprehensive character and it does not at first appear how arduous is the work in preparing it.

For example each pole which the company was must be listed separately and before it can be so listed must be inspected by the engineers.
In finding the value upon a pole the diameter at the base and at the top must be considered and also the character of the wood. The length of time the pole has been in service must be figured on, also the number of cross arms that it carries, the particular kind and number of in-sulators and certain other equipment there on. Then, there comes the further consideration of the number and kind and condition of the wires which are strung upon the cross arm. It can thus readily be seen that there is an immense amount of detail essential if an inventory is to be accurate and comprehensive.

In determining the value of a gas main it is necessary to make excavations at certain points in order to learn the size and condition of the pipe. It is the duty of the engineer for the utility commission to check up the work done by the engineers for the company and to pass upon the accuracy of the listed property.

He may also make notes of his own as to the condition of the property and he also figures upon the value. This information is necessary for the Commission in order that it may have first hand information when the inventory as compiled by the company is presented in evidence at the hearing.

The work is now being pushed along in a very vigorous way by both the company and a commission representative, and it will not be very long until the commission is in position to render judgment as to whether or not the company should lower rates in Jacksonville and as to whether or not the service provided is of the proper standard.

Planning for the Stork's Arrival

Among those things which all women should know of, and many of them do, is a splendid external application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." It is a penetrating liquid and many a mother tells how it so wonderfully aided them through the period of expectancy. Its chief purpose is to render the tendons, ligaments and muscles so pliant that nature's expansion may be accomplished without the intense strain so often characteristic of the period of expectancy.

"Mother's Friend" may therefore be considered as indirectly having a splendid influence upon the early disposition of the future generation.

Whatever influence to the ease and comfort of the mother should unquestionably leave its impress upon the nervous system of the baby.

At any rate it is reasonable to believe that since "Mother's Friend" has been a companion to motherhood for more than half a century it must be a remedy that women have learned the great value of. No more timely advice could be given the inexperienced mother than to suggest the daily use of "Mother's Friend" during the interval of expectancy.

Ask at any drug store for "Mother's Friend," a penetrating, external liquid of great help and value. And write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 502 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book of useful and timely information.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

PRUSSIAN GUARDS ARE DEFEATED IN ATTACK

ROULEAUX NEWSPAPER TELLS OF ENGAGEMENT.

French Artillery Almost Completely Wipes Out Brigade of Prussian Cavalry — Grenadiers Sacrifice Themselves to Cover Retreat of German Columns.

Bordeaux, Oct. 1.—8 p. m.—The defeat of 15,000 Prussian guards who attacked the French center on Sept. 26 is described today in the Petit Gironde.

As soon as news of the German advance was received, French cavalry was sent to hold the enemy at Auberville, department of Marne, to give the artillery and infantry time to come up from Souain, a place near Auberville. But while the French dragoons were preparing for the defense of Auberville, a brigade of Death's Head Hussars, avoiding the village, came across the vineyards and fields with the intention of surprising the French artillery on the march.

It was a critical moment. The French dragoons were two miles ahead and the infantry two miles behind the gunners, who were in danger of being sabred across their guns. The Hussars were only three-quarters of a mile away, galloping furiously. In two minutes the guns were unlimbered and lined up along the road. The enemy then was only 500 yards away and the command could be heard to prepare to charge the guns.

In the charge the Prussian cavalry gathered speed with every yard. When they were 200 yards away the French gunners aimed and there was a flash of fire. Through the blue smoke the artillerymen could see the enemy's horses rearing and officers trying vainly to rally the broken lines.

A second time the battery hurled death into the doomed brigade. A great silence succeeded the thunder of hoofs and the shouting of men. Two thousand horsemen lay as if struck by lightning.

The artillerymen limbered up the guns and rattled to the aid of the dragoons, who were hard pressed and falling back along the highway. The guns were a welcome relief. This time the struggle was more even. The German quick fire returned the fire with interest, but the French infantry arrived and deployed among the lines, a bugle rang out and their bayonets flashed in the sun as they dashed forward.

Without cavalry to aid it the Prussian guard was obliged to fall back. A battalion of Zouaves glided behind and occupied the valley of the Suippe, threatening to place the guard between two fires. A regiment of Grenadiers sacrificed itself to cover the retreat of the German columns on Rheims. Five times the Grenadiers hurled themselves against the French. They were repulsed every time and after the fifth charge only one section was left, a handful of men surrounding the flag.

Then first one, then two and then ten of the Grenadiers threw down their arms. A hundred men, mostly wounded, were all there were left of a splendid regiment. But their sacrifice had not been useless, for it enabled the column to get safely under the guns of the forts at Verru and Nogent L'Abbesse.

THE OLD GIRLS

(By Walt Mason.)

When may grows old and muscle-bound, and crippled by the loads he carries, it's pleasant then to look around, and see the girls he might have married.

Some chance, that once conveyed a smart, prevented this or t'other wedding; ah, then he had a broken heart, and found this life but weary sledding. But now, grown old, he casts his gaze on many a dismal female, that he adored in other days, and thought enchanting and angelic. That matron with the shrewish tongue, who keeps her neighborhood excited—she was a peach when she was young, and once with her my troth was plighted. And that old maid who loves her cat, and has of singing birds a covey, and who has grown absurdly fat—ah, once I called her "Lovey Dovey!" And yonder suffragist so grim, whose purpose is poor man's abasement; long since I sang a lover's hymn, on summer eves, beneath her casement! I thank the destiny that shaped my course when I was young and giddy! Ah me, the perils I escaped, when I rescued the maid and widdy! I see old sweethearts in the town, as here I raise my Ebenezer, and thank them that they turned me down, and landed me the ice cream freezer.

GREECE BUYS AMERICAN COAL. Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 1.—The government of Greece has placed an order for 100,000 tons of coal with the Pocahontas Coal company and the Consolidated Coal company, which is now being sent to the seaboard for shipment. Heretofore Greece has obtained its coal from Wales. The Berwind-White company, the largest exporter of American coal, announces that inquiries are being received almost daily concerning the delivery of coal to South America. Most of the coal that goes to South America is shipped on a cash basis.

GASES MAY BE USED IN DESTROYING TROOPS.

Long Time Resident of Paris Says French Are Using Shells Filled With Explosives.

New York, Oct. 1.—A possible explanation of the terrible slaughter among the Germans described in the recent dispatches from the scene of war is furnished by a prominent American long resident in Paris and widely acquainted in government circles. It is his opinion that the French are using shells filled with a new explosive invented by Eugene Turpin, the inventor of melinite, which liberates deadly gases that asphyxiate all within range of the shells.

At the beginning of the war the Paris newspapers mentioned a new explosive of Turpin's invention which had just been tried out, and predicted that it would annihilate whole regiments. Bombs charged with it were dropped from aeroplanes upon a field containing several hundred sheep, and according to the report, all the animals were killed by the fumes. So deadly was this explosive that the French government at first hesitated to use it on the ground that the slaughter would be too terrible.

Some of the Paris papers intimated in the early stages of the conflict that if the Germans ever attacked the city there would be unheard of slaughter, so apparently it was supposed that these shells—which presumably are used in the 75-millimeter field guns, would be reserved as a last resort for the defense of the capital. But now, according to the theory, the French have at last overcome their humanitarian scruples and decided to use the shells.

Turpin, the supposed inventor of the new shell, has had a stormy history. In 1886, in his laboratory at Colombes, he discovered a method of making picric acid tractable and available for use in high explosives. Thereupon he proceeded with the invention of melinite, and followed with several other explosives. In 1887, however, he accused a certain Captain Tripot of the territorial artillery of stealing his formula and plans for shells and selling them to the Germans in England. Turpin published a book in 1890 attacking the Armstrongs and Tripot with such effect that he procured the latter's conviction, but in the book he published various plans and specifications which gave his enemies a chance to attack him on the charge of divulging secrets pertaining to the national defenses. He was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and paroled after twenty-three months.

"POTASH AND PERLMUTTER" AT THE GRAND TONIGHT

The firm of Potash and Perlmutter, makers of cloaks, suits and laughs, will open shop at the Grand tonight when A. H. Woods presents, direct from its second year in New York City the most famous play of the century. "Potash and Perlmutter" was acclaimed with joy by the New York critics and the amusement public when Mr. Woods first produced it at the Geo. M. Cohan Theatre in that city and for two seasons it crowded that theatre to the doors. Now it comes to us with a company of splendid artists, all of whom have won honors on Broadway in the famous roles.

Although the plot of "Potash and Perlmutter" is woven about the joys and sorrows, the trials and the triumphs of those most lovable characters "Abe" Potash and "Maurice" Perlmutter who first made their bow to the public in the columns of the Saturday Evening Post these laughable heroes of the cloak trade do not monopolize the story. There is plenty of romance in "Potash and Perlmutter" as there is bound to be wherever lovely women and appreciative men meet as they do in this delightful comedy.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

CLEVELAND LIQUOR FIGHT.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 1.—With the announcement of plans for a spectacular and strenuous "dry" fight and the opening of campaign headquarters, the advocates of prohibition in Cuyahoga county have sprung suddenly into the limelight and have caused the liquor interests to sit up and take notice. The committee to conduct the active campaign, which is backed by nearly a dozen organizations and a large number of influential citizens, has been organizing quietly for several months. The leaders are endeavoring to raise $30,000 to push the "dry" campaign in this county. The organization is declared by those active in it to be non-political. They say the fight will be neither political nor religious, but a straightforward campaign against the liberal proposal to amend the Ohio constitution and in behalf of the proposed state-wide prohibition amendment.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT. BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.

Make It Thick, Glossy, Wavy, Luxuriant and Remove All Dandruff.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine" hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter and just try it.

BASEBALL NOTES.

For three consecutive seasons Manager Joe Killian has piloted the Oshkosh team to the championship of the Wisconsin-Illinois league.

The management of the Chicago Cubs has refused to give Captain Tommy Leach a three-year contract. Tom now threatens to jump to the Federals.

By defeating the New London Eastern association champions in four games out of six, the champion Lawrence team of the New England league won the minor league championship of New England.

In pitching and winning a double-header against Detroit the other day Ray Collins, the Red Sox finger, cut in with a stunt seldom seen in major league circles nowadays.

Joe Pendleton, the well known referee of football games in the East, will again be on the job this year. Tack Hardwick of the Crimson eleven is the strongest man at Harvard, having set up a new strength test record of 1281 points.

The Annapolis middles will play Pennsylvania at Franklin Field Oct. 17. The Navy has never before played away from home except against the Army.

It is said Michigan supporters are offering wagers at odds that the Wolverines will defeat Harvard when the two eleven meet at Cambridge on Oct. 31.

Harry Foley claims he has discovered a wonderful boxer in the person of Ralph Grunau, a lightweight of Portland, Ore.

Winnipeg promoters are trying to arrange a match between Freddie Welsh, the lightweight champion, and Pal Brown, of Hibbing, Minn.

Eddie Shevlin, the Boston welterweight who has been boxing instructor at Dartmouth College, has resigned to accept a similar position at Cornell.

IF HEADACHY, DIZZY, BILIOUS, "CASCARETS"

Tonight! Clean Your Bowels and Stop Headache, Colds, Sour Stomach.

Get a 10-cent box now.

You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and illtempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up, inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

COMPLETE ONLY HALF OF COLUMBUS RACES

COASTLESS MOPEL TAKES 2:11 PACE IN STRAIGHT HEATS.

Signal Boy Wins 2:15 Trot, a Six Heat Struggle—Other Two Events Are Unfinished.

Columbus, O., Oct. 1.—So many horses were heat winners at today's Grand Circuit races that only half the program was completed. Coastless Mopel took the 2:11 pace without dropping a heat. Lillian W., winner of second money, was the favorite. Signal Boy won the 2:15 trot, a six heat struggle, during which the winner made several costly breaks. In the third heat, the first he won, he broke on the far turn but made up the lost distance by an excellent brush through the last quarter. He was the first choice.

BEARISH ESTIMATES TOWER WHEAT PRICE

MORE THAN OFFSET INFLUENCE OF ENCOURAGING CABLES.

Prominent Expert Says Yield Will Exceed Latest Government Total by 7,000,000 Bushels—Other Staples Show Decline.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Bearish crop estimates and big receipts more than offset in the wheat market today the influence of encouraging cables and of war demand for flour. There was a weak close, 15c@15c under last night. Other leading staples, too, all showed a net decline; corn, 1c to 1 1/2c@1 1/2c; oats, 3c to 3 1/2c, and provisions 7 1/2c to 6 3/4c.

According to a prominent expert the total yield of wheat in the United States this season will be 900,000,000 bushels, an amount 7,000,000 bushels greater than the latest government total, and exceeding by 140,000,000 bushels the final returns a year ago. Previous to the announcement of the new estimate the market was scoring an energetic advance, the result largely of reports from Paris that stocks of bread stuffs were rapidly decreasing and that serious crop damage in northern France had been confirmed. There were also advices that 119,000 barrels of flour had been sold at St. Louis, Mo., to one of the nations at war.

Corn and oats, like wheat, advanced at first on account of excellent buying, but support later gave out and many stop loss orders were executed on the selling side. There were bearing predictions as to the season's crop of corn. Lively hope of export transactions in oats failed to be realized.

ROBBINS MADE PLEA IN OWN BEHALF

PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR HEARD BY JACK-SONVILLE AUDIENCE.

Old Party Influence Were Deplored and Speaker Declared that New Party Would Bring People Into Their Own Rights—Declares Sullivan Incarnation of Evil in Politics and Sherman a "Pathetic Fact."

Raymond Robbins progressive candidate for the U. S. Senate has reason to be gratified by the audience given him in Jacksonville. Mr. Robbins made an address at the Court House last night, and every seat was occupied and his auditors gave him the closest attention which was broken only with applause.

The meeting was called to order by Thomas Stevenson, chairman of the progressive county committee, who introduced Judge Layman as chairman. Brief addresses were made by W. E. Robinson, Dr. George N. Kreider and Joseph Farris of Springfield and then Mr. Robbins was introduced. He said that the problems of life have become the problems of individual life and stated that the main reasons for the organization of the Progressive party are found in the changes in individual life, in industrial relations and in governmental affairs, which have come to pass within the past three decades. Laws now relate to food, to health, sanitation, education, morals, etc., and so the control of governmental affairs is of greater value than ever before.

The speaker declared that the progressive movement is founded upon the need for the conservation of human rights, the need to place the government in the hands of the people. He said that the theory of government has been the union of the crooks of both old parties with the good elements divided. Thus he pictured that there was a call for the good men of both old parties to unite against the crooks. The need of a tariff commission was emphasized and the admission was made that today there exists financial depression and that the problem of the unemployed is pressing for solution. Mr. Robbins believes that a certain cure for all of these evils can be found in the initiative, referendum and recall. Just as simple as ABC he called this reform program.

An Estimate of Sullivan.

Speaking of Roger Sullivan his opponent on the Democratic ticket, Mr. Robbins termed him "the incarnation of the supreme evils of modern politics, a man who believes in plundering the people for the benefit of the few who made his money by sand bagging the corporations until they took him in; brutal of mind and method so far as politics are concerned."

Referring to Senator Sherman, Mr. Robbins declared that he is the most pathetic fact in Illinois politics today, called him a revolving stand-pater, who was progressive only when forced to such position by the people. He charged Sherman with voting for the Allen bill, with opposing the primary law and the income tax law and with holding legislation while he was speaking of the house. However he credited Mr. Sherman with great ability.

Mr. Robbins went into detail concerning his own interesting past and told of his life in Alaska where he went in 1897 and in three years "dug from the earth enough pure gold to make him an independent man for the remainder of his life." He told also of his settlement work and of his general ideas for the betterment of humanity.

In attacking the two old parties Mr. Robbins said:

Bosess Rule Both Parties.

"In every state in this Union there has grown up in each of the old parties a group of men that we call 'bosesses', who have controlled the people's government for their own privileges and the advantages of the few. Are these idle words?"

"Suppose you leave Illinois tonight in thought and go into the state of New York. If you wanted to find in New York tonight the most powerful Republican, whom would you seek? Would you seek a member of the state senate or a member of congress or even Senator Root, one of the ablest lawyers and foremost Republican men of this nation? Not if you were wise. If you were wise and wanted to find the most powerful Republican, you would go to the legislative office of 'Boss' Barnes."

"If you wanted to find the most powerful Democrat in the state of New York, who would you seek tonight? Would you seek Governor Glynn? Would you seek Senator O'Gorman? Not if you were wise. If you were wise you would go into the office of the chief of Tammany hall; you would sit down in the presence of Mr. Charles F. Murphy, and you would be in the presence of the most powerful single Democrat in the state of New York."

"He holds no public office; he owes no responsibility to the people, and yet he is master of the forces that make and unmake the Democratic officers in the state of New York. Within the year he has recalled from public office the chief executive of the state of New York because he did not do his bidding."

"The same is true of the Republican party in that state, and in virtually every state, including Illinois."

Sees No Hope in Old Parties.
"This Progressive movement has been crystallizing for the past ten years. Men like LaFollette and Bryan in the beginning had their opportunities to lead and failed. These men were leaders who did not know how to lead."

"Whenever a man confuses his own personal success with the success of great principles he is doomed to fail. If ever a man laid aside personal ambition to serve the higher interests of a nation's life, it was Theodore Roosevelt. Then it was that I left the Democratic party and said, 'I will go with you, Theodore Roosevelt, to the end of the road.' The new Progressive party finished that 1912 campaign with more than four million votes and ten times as many electoral votes as the Republican party could win. It was the most tremendous victory in the history of the politics of the world."

"What have we to expect for the solution of the great problems of our national life from the Republican and Democratic parties? The first question is, 'Will the Republican party stay dead?' and all you need to do to make certain your answer will be affirmative is to look over the control of that party in the several states. It has become the conservative, the reactionary party of the United States."

"Can the Democratic party make good? It is controlled by the old reactionaries of the Bourbon South. It is helpless, bound by the archaic doctrine of states' rights, while the Republican party is paralyzed by its feudal doctrines of unconstitutionality. The northern Democracy is dominated by the Sullivans, Taggarts and Murphys; the Republicans have their Barnes, Penrose, Guggenheim, Crane and Smoot. Scratch the surface of a Democrat machine in a big city and you find gambling and vice protected and paying tribute to the machine. Think of Hinky-Dink and Hathhouse John and the O'Malleys and Powers that master the Democratic ship in Chicago."

AD MEN TO HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING.

Affiliated Clubs to Assemble in Detroit for Three Days Session.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 1.—At the convention of the Affiliated Advertising Clubs of America, which is to assemble in this city tomorrow for a session of three days, the movement fostered by W. S. Shryer, of Detroit, to develop the American market to the fullest extent in lieu of depending upon the development of South American trade to take the place of the commerce lost through the war in Europe, will be considered at length. The movement is backed by many of the advertising clubs, and by a large number of manufacturers.

Mr. Shryer, who recently returned from a trip to South America and Europe, says South America simply cannot take the surplus of exports resulting from the present war, and that American manufacturers must develop the American markets. He says, too, they must supply America with products heretofore imported from abroad. In this way, the outlet for manufactured products will be made permanent, for the depression in Europe is bound to continue long enough for American manufacturers to become so thoroughly established in their new ventures that they cannot be dislodged, as they might possibly be in South America by an ultimate renewal of European competition.

The convention will be held under the auspices of the Adcraft Club and the Detroit Board of Commerce. Invitations have been extended to every business man in Michigan. Delegations from Buffalo, Rochester, Cleveland, Chicago, Grand Rapids, Toledo, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other cities have promised attendance.

Prominent among those who are scheduled to address the convention are Cyrus H. K. Curtis of Philadelphia, James Keely of Chicago and the publishers or other representatives of numerous other leading newspapers of the country, together with a large number of representative manufacturers, merchants and advertising agents.

RAIL FALLS ON BRIDGE.

As a south bound C. B. & Q. freight train was crossing the North Main street bridge Thursday a railroad rail fell from a loaded flat car and struck the wagon bridge, lodging directly across the passageway. It fell with sufficient force to break one of the girders. Some persons who drove up just afterward reflected on the disastrous consequences had the rail fallen a few minutes later.

FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS SATURDAY

HANNIBAL HIGH SCHOOL WILL BE INITIAL OPPONENT.

Coach Buland is Rounding Men Into Shape for First Contest—Illinois College Team Goes to Carthage Saturday to Try Strength.

The football season for Jacksonville will open Saturday afternoon at two o'clock when the Hannibal high school eleven comes here for a game against the Jacksonville high. Jacksonville's probable line-up will be: Center—Strawn or Hering. Right Guard—Williamson. Left Guard—Smith or Larson. Right Tackle—Mayer. Left Tackle—P. Strawn. Right End—Boxell or Reynolds. Left End—Thompson or Mayer. Quarter Back—Dick Reynolds. Right Half—Maddox. Left Half—Haigh. Full Back—Killbrow.

On account of the lateness of school the high school men have not had much practice, but they have been putting in some good ticks and expect to give the Missouri boys the best they have. There is some good material still in the high school, which, if it could be gotten out, Jacksonville would undoubtedly have a championship team.

It had been announced that the game would take place at 3 o'clock but the Hannibal men arrive here over the Wabash at 8:28 and leave at 5:15 on the same road so that the game has to be called an hour earlier. Luther Lashmet will referee and John Larson umpire, alternating at halves.

Illinois vs. Carthage.

Illinois college men will be given a chance to try their strength in their first game of the season against Carthage college, the game to be played Saturday at Carthage. Coach Harmon's second team got into the scrimmage last night against the high school and a good practice was part of the program. The men were also busy with the two new tackling dummies, one of which falls to the ground when tackle strikes it and the other fastened up make the player cling to it. While not a great many plays are thoroughly in the mind of the men, Coach Harmon expects to nose out a victory.

Time of Games Changes.

Coach Harmon has succeeded in getting the time of the games against Lincoln and Shurtleff, which are to be played here, changed. The schedule calls for the Lincoln game Oct. 10th and that of Shurtleff Oct. 22. These will be played a day earlier in order to allow the business men to attend. The college players will leave Saturday morning.
